

Station «Pathomorphology. Microscopic diagnosis of diseases and pathological conditions»

Task 01

You are a pathologist at the Morphology Laboratory. For histological examination, you have obtained a liver fragment of a 62 years sick man who has been abusing alcohol for the last 20 years, had jaundice, liver was enlarged, yellow, homogeneous, soft.

Task: Please diagnose and describe the microscopic abnormalities of the liver, consistently commenting each step depends on the standards of the micropreparations description and name the pathological process.