

The list of competences for the exam “Internal medicine”
Station “Standardized patient”

1. Demonstrate a culture of speech, the ability to communicate with the patient, the ability to maintain dialogue, focusing on the leading symptoms.
2. Identify different clinical options for the course of the disease, know the complications of the most common therapeutic diseases.
3. Determine the tactics of patient management for the most common therapeutic diseases.
4. Be able to prescribe preventive measures in accordance with identified risk factors, justify their implementation.
5. Identify leading syndromes and symptoms in an internal medicine clinic.
6. Carry out differential diagnostics and to make preliminary clinical diagnosis at the most widespread therapeutic diseases
7. To plan the scheme of examination of a particular patient, depending on the peculiarities of the clinical course of the disease.
8. Diagnose and provide emergency care for major emergencies in an internal medicine clinic.
9. Interpret the general principles of treatment, rehabilitation and prevention of the most common therapeutic diseases.