

LIST OF PROFESSIONAL COMPETENCIES, which was presented for the exam in a form adapted for students.
Discipline: "Social Medicine, organization and Economics Health"

1. Epidemiological and health statistical research of public health.

To be able to calculate and evaluate the performance of individual and population health (incidence, mortality and disability rates) over time and compared with the average static data.

2. Medical information processing.

To be able to determine the source of finding information; the ability to carry out statistical processing of the material and analyze the information (indicators of demographic processes, morbidity with temporary disability).

3. Examination of temporary disability.

To be able to issue the relevant documents certifying temporary disability.

4. Analysis of medical activity, units, health care institutions.

To be able to calculate and evaluate basic parameters of activity of the doctor, divisions, health care institutions (incl. indicators of economic activity).